Wedding Etiquette

Arrangements will vary accordingly. Below we offer a guide to ease the worry of organising your special day.

The Line Up

At the reception the usual line-up waiting to greet guests is as follows: The bride's parents, followed by the bridegroom's parents, then the bridesmaids and best man. Toastmaster to help and advise you throughout the reception, from organising the Line Up to the order of speeches. Please ask for further details.

Grace

Should your minister be a guest at your reception he will offer grace, if not a close friend of the family should be previously invited to do so.

Toast to the Bride and Groom

This is normally proposed by a close friend of the family and the reply is made by the Bridegroom.

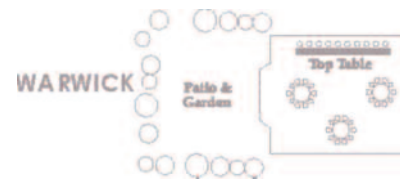

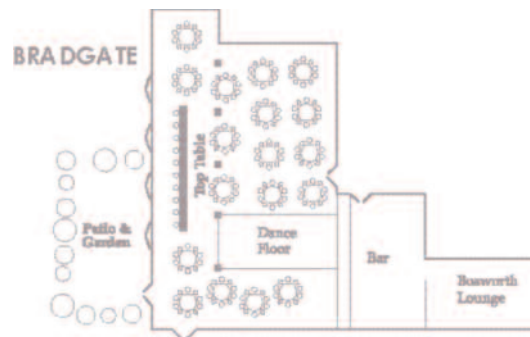

Toast to the Bridesmaids

Proposed by the Bridegroom after his reply to the first toast. The response to this is made by the Best Man.

Toast to the Parents of the Bride and Groom

Proposed by the Best Man after his speech of thanks on behalf of the Bridesmaids. Usually the Bride's Father replies to this final toast.
